Christopher Kane, Pre Fall 2016

Playful, Modern, Bold

This look from Christopher Kane's Pre Fall Collection is representative of his playful and unique designs. The look is relatively simplistic in silhouette but the use of unique and bright details make this dress anything from basic.

I was especially attracted to the use of color blocking to create distinct sections. Additionally, colorful looped trim is used to break up the dress in unexpected ways. The neckline is asymmetrical and does not use traditional construction creating a bold neckline.

Leonard, Spring/ Summer 2016

Bright, Energetic, Fun

Leonard uses bright colorful print from head to toe in this look from the Spring/ Summer 2016 collection. As I am studying textile design I am very drawn to this look. The combination of bright bold florals, polka dots and text is hard to do well and Leonard did it successfully. The florals have a hand drawn quality which is another feature that makes this look successful. Lastly, I enjoyed the loose silhouette that really showed off the fun energetic print.
